Matthew 26:69-75, CEB

Meanwhile, Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant woman came and said to him, "You were also with Jesus the Galilean."

But he denied it in front of all of them, saying, "I don't know what you are talking about."

When he went over to the gate, another woman saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus, the man from Nazareth."

With a solemn pledge, he denied it again, saying, "I don't know the man."

A short time later those standing there came and said to Peter, "You must be one of them. The way you talk gives you away."

Then he cursed and swore, "I don't know the man!" At that very moment the rooster crowed. Peter remembered Jesus' words, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." And Peter went out and cried uncontrollably.

Simon replied, "Yes, Lord, you know I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep." He asked a third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was sad that Jesus asked him a third time, "Do you love me?" He replied, "Lord, you know everything; you know I love you."

John 21:1-14; 21:15-19

One day, Peter and his friends went fishing at night.

But they never caught any fish.

In the morning, a man appeared on the shore. "Throw your net on the other side of the boat."

Peter and his friends did what the man said.

They caught so many fish, they couldn't pull the net in!

Peter and John realized it was Jesus on the shore!

Jesus had breakfast on the beach with his disciples.

Jesus took Peter aside. Jesus asked Peter some questions.

"Peter, do you love me?"
"Yes!" said Peter.

"Then feed my sheep," Jesus said.
Jesus asked Peter again and again.
