The people of Israel wandered out into the desert. While they were there, they became hungry. "We don't have any _____ to eat!" they complained. God told Moses that the people would have food to eat. Then Moses told them that God would provide. That evening, some _____ came into the camp. The Israelites caught the _____ and ate them. Then in the morning, the Israelites saw some _____ on the ground. They ate the _____ like _____. The Israelites called it _____. God had provided food for the Israelites while they were out in the wilderness!
